4. SECTION IV: GUIDANCE

Reporting Responsibility

- 4.1 All Relevant Parties have the responsibility to disclose any alleged Improper Conduct(s) concerning the Group promptly, as soon as they come into possession of a reasonable suspicion of the alleged Improper Conduct(s). In the event of any uncertainty, the Relevant Party should seek clarification from the whistleblowing channel as set out in paragraph 4.10 below.

Safeguards

- 4.2 In the spirit of openness, the Group will support the Whistleblower provided always such Whistleblower is acting in Good Faith and in accordance with this policy whereby:-
- such Whistleblower shall not suffer any Detrimental Action, regardless of the results of the investigation; and
 - such Whistleblower should immediately lodge a report through the secured whistleblowing channel provided in paragraph 4.10 should he/she suffer any Detrimental Action.

Any Detrimental Action is a serious breach of this policy and all directors and/or employees involved in the Detrimental Action will be:-

- (a) subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the relevant policy of the Group; and
- (b) may subsequently lead to termination of employment or removal of office (where applicable).

All third parties (including Business Partners) involved in the Detrimental Action may lead to termination of relationship and/or contracts with the Group.

- 4.3 The Group shall ensure that the identity of the Whistleblower be kept and treated in strict confidence to the fullest possible extent and in accordance with Whistleblower Protection Act 2010.

The identity of the Whistleblower may be disclosed in order to facilitate investigations and/or take appropriate actions for investigations. All personnel, directly or indirectly, involved in the investigation shall protect the identity of the Whistleblower and witnesses from any unauthorized disclosure before, during and after an investigation.

- 4.4 The protections as set out in paragraph 4.3 above will be removed immediately in the event of the following:-
- it is found that the Whistleblower is not acting in Good Faith;
 - a report is made not in accordance to this policy;
 - the Whistleblower has participated in the Improper Conduct(s) reported; and
 - the report is made solely or substantially with the motive of avoiding dismissal or other disciplinary action.

Report of Improper Conduct(s)

- 4.5 In the case of an employee:-
- The employee is encouraged to seek face-to-face guidance with an immediate superior in the best position to address the concern.
 - Where it is not possible or inappropriate to do so, the employee is encouraged to speak or write to the Head of Human Resource of the Group Human Resource Department.

- 4.6 For Relevant Parties other than employees of the Group, such Relevant Parties can use secured whistleblowing channels as set out in paragraph 4.10.
- 4.7 All reports of alleged Improper Conduct(s) should include the name, designation and contact details of the Whistleblower and, where possible, such report shall be signed by the Whistleblower. The Group strongly encourages all whistleblowers to put their names to their allegations whenever possible, as anonymous reports will not be accorded any protection unless it falls under the exception of any applicable policy of the Group. Nonetheless, these reports will still be considered based on the individual merit of each circumstance. The Whistleblower is advised to provide the following information, where possible, applicable and be supported by evidence, to facilitate investigation:-
